

Please do not lift the ban on cellular telephone use aboard airborne aircraft! The noise pollution we have to endure on the ground in our supermarkets, on the bus, waiting in line, is bad enough--but at least we can remove ourselves from the room or environment. Stuck on a plane, I can't imagine the nightmare of such a situation!

Thanks,
Karen E.G. Estevenin